AUSTRALIAN DIRECTORS GUILD ANNOUNCES 2008 ADG AWARDS SHORTLISTED FINALISTS

The Australian Directors Guild is pleased to announce the shortlisted finalists for the 2008 ADG Awards. The ADG Awards provide the highest accolade to outstanding Australian directing talent by their peers. This year, the Awards will be hosted by award-winning director Leah Purcell, and comedian, artist, writer, musician and director Paul McDermott.

The Awards will be held at Leighton Hall in the University of New South Wales' John Niland Scientia Building, on Saturday 27th September. The list of last year's winners included a who's who of Australian directors, including Matthew Saville, Ray Quint and Ian Watson, as well as identifying emerging talent such as Cannes Short Film Jury Prize winner, Julius Avery.

The ADG Outstanding Achievement Awards will also be announced on the night, with past winners and presenters including Gillian Armstrong, Rolf de Heer, Peter Andrikidis, Phillip Noyce, Jan Chapman, Colin Friels and Wim Wenders.
